SPAIN ANXIOUS FOR PEACE

France Engaged in War With Natives in China.

Manzanillo Bombarded by Seven American Ships—Other War Items and Latest General News.

A member of the Spanish Cabinet asserts that the Government is seeking an honorable peace with the United States.

El Imparcial quotes a member of the Ministry as declaring that negotiations for peace are only possible so far as Cuba is concerned. To demand more would be to say that Spain must commit suicide.

The Austrian Government is endeavoring to exert a pressure on England to learn the terms of peace America will be disposed to dictate. Dr. Wolff has drafted terms which in his opinion would be fair. The Ministers, however, declared that the terms were such as Spain could not accept.

Seven American warships heavily bombarded Manzanillo on July 18. Three steamers were set on fire. Several gunboats that issued out of the harbor for the defense of the town were stranded. Guns were landed from a steamer and used in the defense. The gunboats Delgado and Pareja were burned. Blanco telegraphed congratulations to the Manzanillo commander and ordered him to resist to the last.

In a conference with Weyler the Queen Regent tried to dissuade the "hyena" from violently adopting the Carlist cause and taking his military adherents with him.

The London Chronicle says: "Spain's anxiety as to Gibraltar is quite groundless, but if she insists on planting batteries to threaten our harbor and coaling station we shall be obliged to stop her."

There was great jubilation on the American fleet when the announcement was made that the enemy had surrendered Santiago. The Signal Corps wigwagged the news to the ships, and the cheers that followed could be heard for miles.

A movement has been started at Port Tampa, Florida, to present Admiral Cervera a home on Tampa Bay in recognition of his humane and chivalric treatment of Hobson and his crew and a desire to save him from insult and possible death should he return to Spain.

Lieutenant John J. Blandin, who was officer of the watch on the battleship Maine at the time of the explosion, died at an asylum in Baltimore on July 16 as a result of the shock to his nervous system he then suffered. Lieutenant Blandin was also with the American fleet at the time of the Samoa catastrophe.

Admiral Camara's squadron and his transports have finally reached Spanish Mediterranean ports on their return from Port Said.

Eighty sailors were landed from the French cruiser Eclair at Shanghai and began pulling down the wall of an unused cemetery in the French settlement. A large mob of natives attacked the police station. The French police and marines fired twice on the mob. Twenty natives were killed and thirty wounded. The peaceful natives have quitted the French settlements, fearing incendiarism. Two hundred Italian sailors have landed. Thus far everything is quiet in the English and American settlements. The trouble arose over the changing of the site of a joss house by the French. It was the repository of corpses pending their final burial. The object of the French was the double one of removing a nuisance and improving a road. It was when the Chinese refused an offer of money and a new site for the joss house that the sailors were landed.

Advices received in St. Petersburg report that on July 1 an insurrection occurred in Kansu, the most northwest province of China, arising from dissatisfaction with the new taxes.

Seattle Beer.

This ever popular Ranier beer is becoming a household word and "will you have a glass of Seattle" is more often heard than anything else. The Oberlin Saloon have the beer on tap or in bottles.

"Ma," said little Charlie, "Aunt Eva says that bloomers are more decent than skirts." "Well, dear, perhaps they are for cyclists." "Then don't you think, ma, that angels might wear 'em; cause it's very windy in the sky?" And again the inquiring mind groped blindly and vainly.

Hon. C. B. Bush, president of the Gilmer County (W. Va.) Court, says that he has had three cases of flux in his family, during the past summer, which he cured in less than a week with Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. Mr. Bush also states, that in some instances there were twenty hemorrhages a day.—Glenville, W. Va. Pathfinder. This remedy has been used in nine epidemics of flux and one of cholera, with perfect success. It can always be depended upon for bowel complaint, even in its most severe forms. Every family should keep it at hand. The 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by Benson, Smith Co., General Agents.
